

Prepare for Your Bone Marrow Transplantation Trip to Spain

Documents and Visa Requirements

- Valid passport for the duration of your stay.
- European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) if you are an EU resident.
- A visa may be required depending on your country of origin. Visit the official Spanish visa portal at www.exteriores.gob.es for specific requirements.
- Medical referral letter for bone marrow transplantation.
- Complete medical history and records relevant to your treatment.
- If lacking certain medical documents, Spanish clinics provide diagnostics and tests.

Accommodation Options

Hospital stay for bone marrow transplantation is typically 10 days, with meals included. Some clinics may offer partner hotels at discounted rates. Self-booking options are widely available online. Accommodation costs vary, with an average hotel stay per night ranging from €50 to €150.

Transfer Services

- Clinics may offer free or paid airport transfers.
- Popular taxi services like Taxi Barcelona and Taxi Madrid provide transfers with approximate fares ranging from €30 to €100 depending on distance.

Interpreter Services

Interpreter services are often available through the clinics, either complimentary or at an additional cost. Bookimed can assist with arranging these services for your medical visit.

Payment Methods

- Accepted payment options include cash and cards.
- The local currency is the Euro (€), and it is advisable to have some on hand for smaller expenses.
- Many establishments also accept international currencies like dollars or euros, but local currency is preferred for convenience.

Pre-Op Bone Marrow Transplantation Tips

- Follow any pre-op instructions provided by your doctor, including diet and medication guidelines.
- Arrange for a support person to accompany you if possible.
- Prepare a list of questions and concerns to discuss with the transplant team.
- Ensure you have a comfortable and relaxing environment to return to post-operation.
- Consider learning basic Spanish phrases or have a translation app ready for better communication.
- Stay hydrated and maintain a healthy lifestyle leading up to the procedure.
- Organize all travel documents and medical records in an easily accessible manner.
