- Medical reports and histories related to your breast cancer treatment.
- Clinics in Turkey may provide diagnostics and tests if you lack certain medical documents.

Accommodation Options

Many clinics in Turkey offer accommodation services. These include hospital stays or partner hotels, sometimes at discounted rates. The average hotel stay per night is approximately $50-$150. Accommodations for an accompanying person are usually available, but conditions and costs vary.

Transfer Services

- Most clinics offer free airport transfers.
- Popular taxi services in major Turkish cities: BiTaksi, iTaksi with approximate prices ranging from 1.5 to 2 TL per kilometer.

Interpreter Services

Interpreter services are often available, sometimes free of charge, but it is essential to confirm with the clinic beforehand.

Payment Methods

- Payment can be made using cash or credit card.
- The local currency is the Turkish Lira (TL), and it is recommended to have local cash for smaller expenses.
- Paying in dollars or euros may be possible in some places, but it's not guaranteed.

Before Your Breast cancer Treatment

- Ensure all your travel documents are in order and accessible.
- Before leaving, have a final check-up with your local doctor to ensure fitness for travel.
- Carry all your medical records and medications in your hand luggage.
- Check with your insurance provider about coverage for overseas medical treatment.
- Learn a few phrases in Turkish or have a translation app handy.
- Rest well before your journey to be as fit as possible for the treatment.
- Stay hydrated and follow a healthy diet prior to your treatment.
- All postoperative instructions will be given by your Breast cancer treatment doctor.
