

Your Guide to Prepare for CyberKnife Trip to Germany

Documents and Visa Requirements

- Passport valid for at least 3-6 months beyond your stay with blank visa pages.
- Check visa requirements and apply at germany-visa.org based on your country of origin.
- Medical documents: medical history, previous medical findings, laboratory and imaging diagnostics (ultrasound, MRI, CT), functional diagnosis, and a consultation summary.
- Clinics in Germany like Helios Klinikum Krefeld offer preoperative diagnostics, including physical examination and analysis of findings.

Accommodation Options

Patient accommodation includes partnership with 4* hotels, often with discounts. Clinic stays may be included depending on the treatment plan. For self-booking, expect an average hotel stay per night to be around €100-150.

Transfer Services

- Clinics may offer free or paid airport transfers; inquire directly with the clinic.
- Taxi services such as Taxi.eu or MyTaxi are available, with approximate prices starting from €3/km.

Interpreter Services

Interpreter services are available, often included with medical services. For separate interpretation, costs may apply. The video consultation fee with an interpreter is €800.

Payment Methods

- Payment via cash and card is accepted.
- The local currency is the Euro (€); having local currency is advisable for smaller expenses.
- Most places accept payment in euros, and in some instances, dollars may be accepted.

Pre-Op CyberKnife Tips

- Ensure all medical records and imaging are up to date and available.
- Follow any preoperative instructions regarding medications and eating/drinking.
- Prepare a list of questions for your medical team for pre-op consultations.
- Discuss recovery and post-op care plans with your doctor.
- Plan for adequate rest and support post-procedure.
- Confirm with the clinic about follow-up appointments and their scheduling.
- Consider reaching out to a local support group for additional resources and support.
