

Your Guide to Prepare for Infertility Treatment in Turkey

Documents and Visa Requirements

- Passport valid for at least six months beyond the return date.
- Visa, if required. Check visa requirements based on your country at Turkey e-Visa or the nearest Turkish consulate.
- Medical records related to infertility history, previous treatments, and any relevant test results.
- Clinics in Turkey may provide additional diagnostics and tests if certain medical documents are missing.

Accommodation Options

Accommodation is not included with the infertility treatment package. Patients can avail of special partner prices for hotel rooms arranged by the medical travel agency. Average hotel stay per night ranges from $50 to $150. Conditions of stay for an accompanying person will depend on the hotel policy.

Transfer Services

- Complimentary airport-hotel-clinic-airport transfers are included with the treatment package.
- Popular taxi services in Turkey include BiTaksi and iTaksi with approximate fares starting from $0.50/km.

Interpreter Services

Interpreter services may be available upon request, potentially with additional costs. Contact your medical coordinator for more information.

Payment Methods

- Payments can be made with cash or credit/debit card.
- The local currency is Turkish Lira (TRY), and it's recommended to have some for minor expenses.
- Many establishments accept payments in dollars or euros, but it's advisable to carry local currency for convenience.

Before Your Infertility Treatment

- Consult with your home country doctor to ensure you are fit to travel and undergo treatment.
- Follow any pre-treatment instructions provided by your Turkish clinic, such as medication adjustments or hormonal treatments.
- Prepare a list of questions or concerns to discuss with your Turkish medical team upon arrival.
- Pack comfortable clothing and any personal hygiene items that will make your stay more comfortable.
- Ensure to have international travel insurance that covers medical treatment abroad.
- Learn some basic Turkish phrases or download a translation app to facilitate communication.
- Keep copies of all your documents, including passports, visa, medical records, and travel insurance, both digitally and in print.
- Stay hydrated and adjust to the new time zone gradually to reduce jet lag.
