

Prepare for Your Liver cancer Treatment in Turkey

Documents and Visa Requirements

- Passport valid for at least six months beyond your stay.
- Visa, if required for your nationality. Verify at Turkey's e-Visa website.
- Medical reports, imaging (like CT scans/MRIs), and biopsy results.
- Local clinics may provide diagnostics and tests if previous medical documents are incomplete.

Accommodation Options

Hospital stays are included in treatment packages. Partner hotels offer discounts, but self-booking is an option. Average hotel cost is about $50-$100 per night. Accompanying person's stay conditions vary by clinic.

Transfer Services

- Clinics often provide free airport transfers.
- Popular taxi services like BiTaksi and iTaksi offer rides; costs vary with distance and city, approximately $0.50-$1.00 per kilometer.

Interpreter Services

Interpreter services are generally available, sometimes free of charge but could incur costs depending on the clinic's policies.

Payment Methods

- Both cash and card payments are accepted.
- Local currency (Turkish Lira) is recommended for smaller expenses, but dollars or euros are widely accepted.

Before Your Liver cancer Treatment

- Discuss all medications and supplements with your doctor; some may need to be paused.
- Follow any fasting instructions before procedures.
- Plan for recovery time and post-treatment care.
- Bring comfortable clothing for your hospital stay and post-treatment recovery.
- Ensure you have adequate travel insurance covering medical treatment abroad.
- Stay hydrated and maintain a healthy diet as advised by your doctor.
- Prepare a list of questions or concerns to discuss with your medical team.
