

Prepare for Your Radiofrequency Ablation Trip to Turkey

Documents and Visa Requirements

- Passport valid for at least six months beyond your stay.
- Tourist visa, if required for your nationality. Check visa requirements at the official Republic of Turkey Electronic Visa Application System (www.evisa.gov.tr).
- Medical reports and history relating to your treatment.
- Clinics in Turkey may provide additional diagnostics and tests if needed.

Accommodation Options

Accommodation is not included in the medical package. Patients can opt for hospital stays, partner hotels with discounts, or self-booking. Average hotel stay per night is approximately $50-$150.

Transfer Services

- Regular transfer services to and from the airport may be arranged by clinics; inquire if this service is complimentary.
- Popular taxi services, such as BiTaksi, offer rides at varying prices starting from around ₺3.00 per kilometer ($0.16).

Interpreter Services

Interpreter services are often available through the clinics. Some may offer this complimentary, while others may charge a fee. Confirm with your medical coordinator.

Payment Methods

- Clinics accept payments via cash or credit/debit card.
- Local currency (Turkish Lira - TRY) is recommended for smaller transactions and convenience.
- Some places may accept payment in dollars or euros, but local currency is preferred.

Pre-Op Radiofrequency Ablation Tips

- Discuss all medications and supplements with your doctor; some may need to be paused before the procedure.
- Follow any fasting instructions given by the clinic for the day of your procedure.
- Bring comfortable clothing that is easy to change into after the procedure.
- Stay hydrated, but follow any guidelines provided regarding fluid intake before surgery.
- Plan for adequate rest and recovery time post-procedure as advised by your doctor.
- Consider local cultural norms and dress codes when packing for your trip.
- Have a contact number for your medical coordinator handy for any immediate post-op concerns.
